A Word From Your Pastor...

Thank You for Our Hanging of the Green Service!

Darek, orchestra, choirs, soloists, participants, sound team, video team, youth decorators, and congregation all contributed to another great Hanging of the Green service to launch our Christmas season! It is no wonder this service is always popular to our church and neighbors. While I wasn't able to physically be present I did watch online with about 60 others who faithfully view our services online. While it is never the same as being present in person, it was a great blessing to at least look in, as it were, through the window and vicariously experience this transitional worship time.

Something New

You may have noticed our church's QR code affixed to the back of the chair in front of you in the auditorium. Moving your cell phone's camera over the code will allow you to go to our church's website, fill out a visitor's card, and other cool things.

More Gratitude for Steve's 20th Anniversary

A word needs to be said also regarding the great love and affection our church showed to Steve and Vickie French in celebrating and honoring Steve for his many years serving the body of Christ here. People like the Personnel Committee, Sue & Fred Angeney, Patrick & Kassi Burruss, our food servers, those who helped in the kitchen and helped set up and take down after the event, photographers, our sound team, and others I'm sure. It is very important to maintain gratitude towards all of those who serve this church and make ministry possible for the good of the kingdom.

Adult Small Group Bible Study and Prayer...

Sunday Morning... "Ezekiel; Daniel"

We all long for security. We're drawn to anything that promises a little peace of mind. Ezekiel's audience could relate. They were exiles that had turned their backs on God and were suffering the consequences. Meanwhile, Daniel reminded his readers that faithfulness comes with a price. His visions of the future described the rise of fierce kingdoms and only added turmoil to their already turbulent lives. Yet both prophets proclaimed a God who remained in control of every situation in every generation. He was punishing His people for their sin but he also promised the hope of something infinitely better if they would trust His plan.
